VOLUMENT THE AMENDMENTS.

There is considerable discussion of the two amendments to the Constitution to be voted upon November 5 The prevalent dictum is that the more important of the two is that designed to pave the way for personal registration in cities Possibly, but the arguments advanced do not prove the case. Personal regis tration in cities is expected to make repeating and ballot stufting more difficult The other amendment designed to admit of the use of the voting machine cannot hinder repeating, but it will operate to discourage ballot-box stuffing. Both should pass together, It is the common practice of the de bauchers of the ballot to hold back returns from precincts where they have complete control until the result in other districts has been learned. The corrupt oflicers then insert enough ballots to overcome adverse returns from other districts. With the voting machine in use there can be no pretense upon which to hold back. The moment the last vote is registered the machine is ready to give by the fact that in voting for Frank | the totals Of course it is possible to repeat upon the machine, as it is upon the ballot box, where the election board is willing, and, of course, it is possible to have false registration where personal registration is in vogue. One need go no further than the records for New York city to obtain proof to that effect. The cost of the voting machine has been urged as a vital objection to its use. of that argument. As a matter of fact, no amendments to the Constitution and no laws can make election frauds impos-

The snappy weather of the last few weeks, and the certainty that has been forced into the minds of the people, that winter is on the way, has given our Ready-to-Wear Department extraordinary business. The varied lines we carry, in full assortment of styles and sizes, allow few to go away disappointed who really desire to buy. Manufacturers have been unusually slow in filling re-orders and orders for special garments, owing to the fact of large business and slow deliveries of piece goods from the mills. We give an extract from a leading commercial paper showing "So far as can be learned, the deliveries of piece goods do not improve to an extent that is likely to relieve the cituation within the near Inture. Particularly is this true of goods mostly in demand, and generally is it true of marly all fabrics that enter into the composition of garmente,1 We therefore advise intending purchasers to attend to this want of a

Wrap, Tailor-made Suit, Walking Skirt, Dress Skirt, Waist early to avoid disappointment as well as probably a saving on the purchase price. We will have no goods in stock but those rightly made, and no one can buy ready-made goods during a busy season, from first-class concerns, unless he has placed an initial order at the beginning, and we feel that unless you are satisfied with sweat shop garments the advice given above is much to your advantage. We, in part, saw the rush that would likely come in October and we are well prepared at present, but sizes and styles are thinning out rapidly now.
